

Introit for Second Sunday after Trinity

The LORD was my support
in the day of my calamity.

He brought me out into a broad place;
he rescued me, because he delighted in me.

I love you, O LORD, my strength.

The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer.

For you save a humble people
but the haughty eyes you bring down.

This God—his way is perfect;

the word of the LORD proves true.

For this I will praise you, O LORD, among the nations,
and sing to your name.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;

as it was in the beginning,

is now, and will be forever. Amen.

The LORD was my support
in the day of my calamity.

He brought me out into a broad place;
he rescued me, because he delighted in me.

Old Testament Reading - Proverbs 9:1–10

<sup>1</sup>Wisdom has built her house;

she has hewn her seven pillars.

<sup>2</sup>She has slaughtered her beasts; she has mixed her wine;
she has also set her table.

<sup>3</sup>She has sent out her young women to call
from the highest places in the town,

To him who lacks sense she says,

<sup>5</sup>“Come, eat of my bread
and drink of the wine I have mixed.

<sup>6</sup>Leave your simple ways, and live,
and walk in the way of insight.”

and he who reproves a wicked man incurs injury.

<sup>8</sup>Do not reprove a scoffer, or he will hate you;
reprove a wise man, and he will love you.

<sup>9</sup>Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser;
teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.

<sup>10</sup>The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight.

The Epistle - Ephesians 2:13–22

<sup>13</sup>But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. <sup>14</sup>For he himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility <sup>15</sup>by abolishing the law of commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace, <sup>16</sup>and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby killing the hostility. <sup>17</sup>And he came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near. <sup>18</sup>For through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. <sup>19</sup>So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, <sup>20</sup>built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, <sup>21</sup>in whom the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. <sup>22</sup>In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit.

The Gospel - Luke 14:15–24

<sup>15</sup>When one of those who reclined at table with [Jesus] heard these things, he said to him, “Blessed is everyone who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!” <sup>16</sup>But he said to him, “A man once gave a great banquet and invited many. <sup>17</sup>And at the time for the banquet he sent his servant to say to those who had been invited, ‘Come, for everything is now ready.’ <sup>18</sup>But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, ‘I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. Please have me excused.’ <sup>19</sup>And another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to examine them. Please have me excused.’ <sup>20</sup>And another said, ‘I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.’ <sup>21</sup>So the servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house became angry and said to his servant, ‘Go out quickly to the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor and crippled and blind and lame.’ <sup>22</sup>And the servant said, ‘Sir, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.’ <sup>23</sup>And the master said to the servant, ‘Go out to the highways and hedges and compel people to come in, that my house may be filled. <sup>24</sup>For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste my banquet.’”
