

Introit for The Second Sunday after Pentecost

Teach me your way, O LORD, that I may walk in your truth;
unite my heart to fear your name.

Incline your ear, O LORD, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.

Preserve my life, for I am godly;
save your servant, who trusts in you—you are my God.

Be gracious to me, O Lord,
for to you do I cry all the day.

Gladden the soul of your servant,
for to you, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

For great is your steadfast love toward me;
you have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;

as it was in the beginning,

is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Teach me your way, O LORD, that I may walk in your truth;
unite my heart to fear your name.

Old Testament Reading 1 Kings 8:22–24, 27–29, 41–43

²²Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven, ²³and said, “O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and showing steadfast love to your servants who walk before you with all their heart, ²⁴who have kept with your servant David my father what you declared to him. You spoke with your mouth, and with your hand have fulfilled it this day.

²⁷“But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you; how much less this house that I have built! ²⁸Yet have regard to the prayer of your servant and to his plea, O LORD my God, listening to the cry and to the prayer that your servant prays before you this day, ²⁹that your eyes may be open night and day toward this house, the place of which you have said, ‘My name shall be there,’ that you may listen to the prayer that your servant offers toward this place.

⁴¹“Likewise, when a foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, comes from a far country for your name’s sake ⁴²(for they shall hear of your great name and your mighty hand, and of your outstretched arm), when he comes and prays toward this house, ⁴³hear in heaven your dwelling place and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to you, in order that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your people Israel, and that they may know that this house that I have built is called by your name.”

The Epistle - Galatians 1:1–12

¹Paul, an apostle—not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead—
²and all the brothers who are with me,

To the churches of Galatia:

³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴who gave himself for our sins to deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, ⁵to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

⁶I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel— ⁷not that there is another one, but there are some who trouble you and want to distort the gospel of Christ. ⁸But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach to you a gospel contrary to the one we preached to you, let him be accursed. ⁹As we have said before, so now I say again: If anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to the one you received, let him be accursed.

¹⁰For am I now seeking the approval of man, or of God? Or am I trying to please man? If I were still trying to please man, I would not be a servant of Christ.

¹¹For I would have you know, brothers, that the gospel that was preached by me is not man’s gospel. ¹²For I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

Holy Gospel - Luke 7:1–10

¹After [Jesus] had finished all his sayings in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum.

²Now a centurion had a servant who was sick and at the point of death, who was highly valued by him. ³When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and heal his servant. ⁴And when they came to Jesus, they pleaded with him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy to have you do this for him, ⁵for he loves our nation, and he is the one who built us our synagogue.” ⁶And Jesus went with them. When he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to him, “Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof. ⁷Therefore I did not presume to come to you. But say the word, and let my servant be healed. ⁸For I too am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me: and I say to one, ‘Go,’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.” ⁹When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turning to the crowd that followed him, said, “I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith.” ¹⁰And when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the servant well.

IT'S A LUAU!! On Sunday, June 5, we will be having our annual summer kick-off party. The theme will be a Hawaiian Luau and the activities will include a slip and slide, games and snacks/drinks. Weather permitting, we will be starting after Sunday School (10:00ish) until noon or so. If your child(ren) want to participate in the water activities, be sure to bring along swimwear and an extra change of clothes. All kids (and adults) are welcome so put on your grass skirt and leis and come kick off summer with us!

IT IS V.B.S. TIME AGAIN! VBS is July 17-22 from 6:00-8:30 each night. VBS is for kids 3 years old to the 6th grade. The theme this year is that of a rock concert and the Bible Studies follow the 10 commandments. Our VBS has been a very successful program that is a meaningful experience for the kids as well as the adult helpers. We will be needing a lot of help to keep our VBS going. We will have several stations including Bible Study, games, snacks, songs, and crafts. We will need adult leaders for the individual stations as well as group leaders. If you can help every night, or only one night, we have a job for you! Many people have thought that they are not qualified to help with VBS, but I can tell you that the only skill required is a willing attitude. So, I would encourage anyone who is willing to help serve the young people of our churches in this unique way! We will be having several planning meetings over the course of the next few months. If you can help, please contact Brian MacLean at ~~660-287-2885~~ and be a part of something special!
2016 L.W.M.L. MISSOURI DISTRICT CONVENTION will be held June 3 – 5, 2016 at the Osage Center in Cape Girardeau, MO. The theme for this convention will be "God's Love Spans the Centuries," based on Matthew 28:20b: "And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."
